

A&M Germany & Sweden Environmental Studies Summer Faculty-led 2025

Deadline to Apply is December 1st, 2024

OVERVIEW

Through inquiry-based, experiential learning, students will understand urbanization in its broader context, with all the challenges and opportunities it presents to societies and to the functioning of the Earth system as a whole in this increasingly urban century. The international locations are selected strategically as both Berlin and Gävle are important centers where Nature-based Solutions (NbS) and Green Infrastructure (GI) are implemented to adapt urban environments to changing environmental hazards.

PROGRAM LEADER

Dr. Burak Güneralp is an Associate Professor in Geography.
