

Casey R. Ellisen

(425)-894-8184
crellisen@tamu.edu

Education

Texas A&M University, College Station, TX August '20 – Present

Masters in History, received March, 2022

Ph.D. student, Department of History

Research Interests: 20th century United States military and religious history, church-military relations, World War I

History Graduate Student Organization Officer, 2021-2022

David Chapman '67 Graduate Fellowship recipient, 2022

The Bush School of Government and Public Service August '21 – Present

Certificate in Advanced International Affairs, in progress

George Fox University, Newberg, OR Graduated May 2020

Bachelor of Arts: History and Psychology

Magna Cum Laude, Dean's List 8 semesters

Trustee's Merit Scholarship Recipient

Research Experience

Richter's Scholar Program June '19 – Dec. '19

“Armageddon: Pentecostal Eschatology and Reactions to the Great War”

George Fox University History Project Jan. '18 – May '18

Researched the history of George Fox University and created a website with a team from scratch for incoming students to utilize in future coursework.

Research included archival work, photo collection and digitizing, and writing informational columns.

Teaching Experience

Graduate Teaching Advisor Aug. '20 – Present

History 105: History of the U.S. until 1877, Fall 2020

History 105: History of the U.S. until 1877, Spring 2021

History 230: American Military History, Fall 2021

History 106: History of the U.S. since 1877, Spring 2022

History 105: History of the U.S. until 1877, Fall 2022

Invited Lecturer

- Lecture title: "The Rise of Christian Fundamentalism in the 1920s" Oct. '21
Lecture title: "America in the Great War, 1917-1918" Feb. '22

Leadership

History Graduate Student Organization Annual Conference Feb. '22

"Exploring the Margins of History"

Organized and executed the twelfth annual History Graduate Student Organization Conference, hosting over 90 students from around the country.

Commentator and chair on "Medicine and Disease in the Study of Race, Gender, and Religion" panel

Chair on "Challenging Perspectives in U.S. Religious History" panel

War, Violence, and Society Working Group Aug. '22 - Present

Co-convener

Carlos H. Cantu Hispanic Education and Endowment Fund Aug. '22 – Present

Graduate Fellow

Work Experience

Newell House Museum and Pioneer Village June '18 – Aug. '18

Intern for museum and school education program

Museum of the American G.I. May '21 – Aug '21

Created and designed the Voices from Vietnam exhibit, involving interviewing local veterans and displaying their stories for the community.

Wrote articles on veteran's experience, preparing for publication to the museum's website.

Texas A&M University Press May '22 – Aug. '22

Editorial Intern for TAMU Press