

Mark Mallory

Texas A&M University • Department of History
markmallory@tamu.edu • (337) 501-1663

EDUCATION

- 2023 – 2025: Texas A&M University, Ph.D. expected 2028, History
- 2019 – 2021: University of Louisiana at Lafayette, M.A., 2021, History, graduated with honors
- 2013 – 2018: University of Louisiana at Lafayette, B.A., 2018, History and Political Science, magna cum laude

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

- 2023 – 2025: Teaching Assistant, Department of History, Texas A&M University
American Indian History, Principal Instructor: Dr. Angela Hudson
History of the U.S. I, Principal Instructor: Dr. Albert Broussard
History of the U.S. II, Principal Instructor: Dr. Robin Roe
History of Texas, Principal Instructor: Dr. Robin Roe
- 2023 – 2024: K-12 Substitute Teacher, Kokua Education
- 2023: In-Class Tutor, HeyTutor, Austin ISD
- 2019 – 2021: Teaching Assistant, Department of History, University of Louisiana at Lafayette
U.S. History 1877-Present, Principal Instructor: Dr. Robert Carriker
World History to 1400, Principal Instructor: Dr. Robin Hermann
World History to 1400, Principal Instructor: Dr. Andrew de la Garza
Nazi Germany, Principal Instructor: Dr. Richard Frankel

GRANTS & AWARDS

- 2025: Portal to Texas History Research Fellowship, Cathy Nelson Hartman Portal to Texas History Endowment
- Summer Research Travel Grant, Department of History, Texas A&M University
- Glasscock Graduate Research Fellowship, Melbern G. Glasscock Center for Humanities Research, Texas A&M University
- Raymond D. Fogelson Pre-Dissertation Research Grant, American Society for Ethnohistory
- Ron Stone Texas History Grant, Ron Stone Foundation for the Enhancement and Study of Texas History
- 2024: Presenter Scholarship, Oral History Association
- Summer Research Travel Grant, Department of History, Texas A&M University
- Summer Language Training Scholarship, Department of History, Texas A&M University
- Oral History Mini Grant, Southwest Oral History Association
- Graduate Student Small Research Grant, Race and Ethnic Studies Institute, Texas A&M University
- 2023: Glasscock Arrival Fellowship, Melbern G. Glasscock Center for Humanities Research, Texas A&M University

2021: Special Collections Research Grant, Michigan State University Libraries

2015 – 2018: Jefferson Caffery Scholarship, University of Louisiana at Lafayette

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS & INVITED LECTURES

2025: “Unspeakable Narratives: Racial Illegibility and Compounding Erasures in Black Seminole Women’s History,” Southern Association of Women’s Historians triennial conference

“Traces of the Black Seminole Diaspora: Black and Native Incorporation in Texas Public History Since 1983,” Alliance for Texas History annual conference

"Border Crossing, Border Making, and Transborder Recognition Politics in Black Seminole Diaspora History," 7th Annual International Conference on Border Studies

2024: “Black, Native, & Otherwise: Re-imagining Diasporic Past, Present, and Futures in Oral Travel Accounts of Black Seminole Women”, Oral History Association annual conference

“Traces of the Black Seminole Diaspora: Black and Native Incorporation in Texas Public History Since 1983,” Oxford University Transnational and Global History Seminar annual conference

“Imagining Diasporic Futures: Black Seminole Women and the Politics of Refusal,” Southwest Oral History Association annual conference

“‘Even More Deeply in Shadow’: Conceptualizing Bordering Processes in Black Seminole Women’s History,” Association for Borderland Studies annual conference

“‘African Rambo with more ammo’: Race, Gender, Coloniality, and the Black Seminole Warrior in Lil Yachty’s ‘the BLACK seminoles.’” Texas A&M University History Graduate Student Organization annual conference

2023: “Bridging Generations: Black Seminole Women and the Production of a Black and Native Identity,” Texas Oral History Association annual conference

“Female Travelers in the Black Seminole Diaspora: Historical Memory, Recognition Politics, and the Production of a Black and Native Identity,” Oxford University Transnational and Global History Seminar annual conference

2021: “Myths for American Men: Indianness, Neoliberalism, and Recovery in the Mythopoetic Men's Movement,” Michigan State University Libraries Summer Series

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

2023 – 2025: Cataloguing Intern, Texas Archive of the Moving Image, Austin, TX

2023: Field Interviewer, Capital Metro, Austin, TX

2019 – 2021: M.A. thesis, University of Louisiana, “Myths for American Men: Indianness, Neoliberalism, and Recovery in the Mythopoetic Men’s Movement”

2018: Oral History Research Assistant, Dr. Liz Skilton, University of Louisiana

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE

2024 – 2026: Convenor, Indigenous Studies Working Group, Texas A&M University

2025: Panel Chair, “Economic Intersections: Development and Borders,” 7th Annual International Conference on Border Studies

Symposium Organizer and Panel Moderator, “Conversations at the Intersection of Black and Native Studies,” Indigenous Studies Working Group, Texas A&M University

2024: Panel Chair, “Women, Bodies, and Border Experiences,” Association for Borderland Studies annual conference

2019 – 2021: Graduate School Senator & President, Student Government, University of Louisiana
Committee Chair, Student Worker Living Wage Committee, University of Louisiana
Committee Chair and Founding Member, Student Action & Organizing Committee, University of Louisiana

2020 – 2021: History Department Representative, Graduate Student’s Organization, University of Louisiana

PUBLICATIONS

2024: Book Review of Labor Under Siege: Big Bob McEllrath and the ILWU’s Fight for Organized Labor in an Anti-Union Era by Harvey Schwartz and Ronald E. Magden, Sound Historian: Journal of the Texas Oral History Association