

Title: Representation Theory for Differential Geometry and Complexity Theory

Course Description:

Representation theory of the general linear group, Schur-Weyl duality, Bott-Borel-Weil theorem, applications to complexity theory and differential geometry. Students will give monthly presentations.

Prerequisites: Knowledge of elementary representation theory and algebraic geometry.