

Aletheia

TAMU'S UNDERGRADUATE PHILOSOPHY
JOURNAL

CALL FOR PAPERS

Aletheia is an undergraduate journal of philosophy committed to publishing cogent, original contributions to the field of philosophy from high-achieving undergraduate students. We are looking to publish the top 5-6 papers from any field of philosophy or any paper with philosophical elements.

To submit your paper, email it, as a .docx file and a .pdf file, to: tamu.aletheia@gmail.com.

Title the subject heading of the email: "Aletheia Submission - [The Name of Your Paper]."

Please include: Your name, preferred email, name of paper, and name of your institution in your email with your submission.

Format your paper for blind review process (i.e. remove your name or any other identifying information in your paper before submitting).

Papers should be 2000-7000 words in length (submissions slightly above or below this limit are welcome) in 12-point font Times New Roman and double-spaced. Include an approximately 150-250-word abstract. Follow the Chicago Manual of Style Notes and Bibliography style for citations (although other formatting, such as MLA or APA, will be allowed during the review for acceptance process).

You must be an undergraduate at the time of submission. Only one submission per author.

Deadline for submissions is October 31st
